THE CUYAHOGA COUNTY BOARD OF ELECTIONS COMPLETES RECOUNT OF PARMA ISSUE 10 FROM THE MAY 7, 2019 PRIMARY ELECTION

(Cleveland) – The Board of Elections has completed the recount of ballots cast for and against Parma Issue 10. If approved by voters the issue would have repealed the city ordinance that prohibits residents from owning Pit Bull dogs.

The results of the recount were an exact match of the official results:

Issue 10 failed by a 14 vote margin:

5,921 (49.94) in favor of the repeal
5,935 (50.06) opposed to the repeal

11,856 ballots were recounted including 600 that were subject to a hand count.

Additional re-count information can be found on the Board's website: www.443VOTE.com.
